HOPS IN POLK.—The hop yards of the county are all promising well, and as the time for harvesting them draws near give more encouragement for a rich return. There is one thing that stands between the hop grower and genuine happiness, just now, and that is the securing of money with which to make the crop ready for market. We learn that the money can be secured by paying from 10 to 25 per cent for three months, giving a good sized bonus, allowing one cent on each pound of hops, giving gilt-edged security and a mortgage on the crop. Verily, a "dead mortal clutch" worketh wonders in money circles.—Dallas Transcript.

A SOLID CITY.—An Albany paper supports the idea that Salem is dead, and grows over its own supposition. In addition to being a discourtesy, this is a plain lie. Salem is today one of the brightest and most solid little cities in the Northwest. It is very possible that Albany may be too, some day, but it is a mistake to imagine that that position can be attained by a perpetual attempt to cast mean slurs at towns more fortunate, and faster in the race.—Astorian.

OREGON WINS.—Harritt won the gold medal match for the 8th time last evening and is now the permanent possessor. Only two other sportsmen were skilful enough with the gun to stay in the ring to the end—Messrs. Turner and Gabrielson.

THE CIRCUS.—It came and went and still people must eat. The stock of necessities and luxuries holds out bigger than ever at J. A. Van Eaton's.

GREAT SUCCESS.—Ladies who are experts at preserving fruits all speak well of the Lightning Fruit Jars sold at Clark & Eppley's grocery, Court St.

ONE SLEEPER.—Two drunks were before his honor Judge Edes this morning. The former was turned loose and the latter got five days each.

CUTTING WIRES.—Several prominent business men were cutting wires off their building today of various electric companies.

BORN.

IRVING.—At home at the state school for deaf-mutes, Salem, August 23, 1893, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Irving, a daughter.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Brewer Klingler was at Turner today. Mrs. and Mrs. A. O. Condit went to Turner today.

Senator Jeff Myers was a passenger for Oregon City today.

Napoleon Davis and family went to Portland where they make their home for the present.

F. T. Hart, the artist in trousers, returned from Albany today.

A. Bush, the Salem banker, is at Portland today.

Wm. Chambers has been appointed to an inspectorship in the custom house at Portland.

The State Fair. The State Board of Agriculture is in session today at the state house but not to consider "the advisability of abandoning the state fair this year" as the Oregonians say today.

The meeting is called to consider the state of finances of the fair. A state warrant of the sum of $5000 needed to cash premiums has been troubling the board a little, but not enough to stop holding a fair.

A great deal of money has been expended on new race tracks, new buildings, advertising, and repairs,—probably $15,000,—and the Board has never thought of such a thing as giving up the annual state fair that has been held each year for 35 years.

FOR LARCENY.—One Henry Carson is in the Salem jail, bound over to the grand jury by Constable Miller, of the Aurora, Butteville and Hubbard district, charged with robbing one Clarence Bell, an old man of a valuable watch.

C. H. Nelson has a chip on his shoulder. He will trot Nelson against Martha Wilkes, Ryland T. Arion or Kremlin.

William Freer, who purchased the Kiersted farm at Kingston, N. Y., will begin the construction of a half mile track.

This may be a circus story, but it is said that the 420 horses and 10 elephants of the Forepaugh circus consume five tons of hay and straw and 150 bushels of oats daily.

There is one plant that is never touched by an insect, and that is tansy. If you rub a horse over with a handful of it before taking him out upon the road, it is claimed that the flies will not touch him.

Only Right To Tell.

The Rev. Mark Guy Pearce, eminent English Divine, writes:

"BEDFORD PLACE, RUSSELL SQUARE, LONDON, December 10, 1888.

"I think it only right that I should tell you of how much use I find Allcock's Porous Plasters in my family and among those to whom I have recommended them. I find them a very breastplate against colds and coughs."

Nobody can have dyspepsia or biliousness if they take Simmons Liver Regulator.
